

Crail Community Trust

January 2009

Aims

Crail Community Trust (CCT) is a charity which aims to involve the whole community in determining how best to use Crail's facilities on behalf of the whole community.

Our constitution defines our charitable aims as follows:

1. to manage community land and associated assets for the benefit of the Community and the public in general following principles of sustainable development, where "sustainable development" means development which meets the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs
2. to provide, or assist in providing, recreational facilities, and/or organising recreational activities, which will be available to members of the public at large with the object of improving the conditions of life of the Community and following principles of sustainable development.
3. to advance for the public benefit community development, including urban or rural regeneration.
4. to advance environmental protection or improvement including preservation, and conservation of the natural environment, the promotion of sustainable development, the maintenance, improvement or provision of environmental amenities for the community and/or the preservation of buildings or sites of architectural, historic or other importance to the community
5. to advance the education of the Community about its environment, culture, heritage and/or history and through the provision of childcare, youth and adult education and educational activities for members of the Community.